January 2015

Ladies and Gentlemen of the GCICS,

Here we are in January, 2015, with the holidays behind us and hopefully some time to reflect about "where we are and hopefully where we want to be." I believe it is always important to 'know thyself' and thus look to improve for, as you know, the biggest people in the world are those who reach down to help someone.

My previous letter to you outlined the mission of GCICS, so I think it appropriate now to mention how each of us can gain fulfillment in our lives by trying to do what we can to help others. Time and time again we see examples of the happiness derived by those who help others in any number of small and large ways. You may recall India's great freedom fighter, Mahatma Gandhi, saying, "The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others." GCICS gives each of us a chance to do just that, not only with our money but with the devotion of our time, intellect, and experiences. Each of us can make a difference if we put our mind to it. Accordingly, I am asking you, as I did last month, to challenge your mind and email your suggestions to us so that we all can make a difference in this wonderful community.

Please realize that 'time' is our most precious resource. You cannot save it or store it. Once it is gone, it is gone forever. We must be mindful of the need to use our time wisely and well in the service of others, the fulfillment of self, and the enjoyment of life's simple pleasures. In doing so, we will be re-energized and renewed.

I want to take a moment to thank Joe and Micki Moccia for their efforts in hosting a very festive Christmas Party and also to personally thank Joe for his steady and most deliberate efforts on behalf of GCICS from the time he recruited me in 2012 right up until the present. He is a great role model for each of us. At our annual meeting in January, I am urging you to attend and use the discussion section of the meeting to offer any thoughts you have regarding improving GCICS and making the most of your association with us. I hope to see you there! Usually Ellen Roderick, our organization's secretary does a great job in facilitating the open discussion section of the meeting but, for personal reasons, she may not be able to attend so yours truly will attempt to fill her shoes and kick things off. I can promise a joke or two and a very tasty lunch. Mary Rinaldi and I will make sure you enjoy the afternoon.

Of course, we still have 5 to 7 young people depending on us to provide financial assistance toward their higher education. We are committed to this and Sheryl Lazzarotti will update us on progress toward our fulfilling this goal.

See you at the Annual Meeting
Tony Esposito

CHRISTMAS PARTY REVIEW

Thirty six members came on December 13, 2014 to enjoy the festivities at the home of Micki & Joe Moccia. The D.J. played background music while the guests first dined on a delicious array of appetizers. Everyone left room for the main course of turkey, mashed potatoes, stuffing, green beans, and numerous casseroles too good to imagine. After coffee and desert, guests were treated to a singing performance of "White Christmas" performed by a neighbor, and past Country Western Singer, Ralph Shannon. Guests danced out on the patio. The money raised went to the GCICS scholarship fund.
